

The Border Vidette.

ISSUED WEEKLY AT

NOGALES, ARIZONA.

—BY—

FRANK M. KING.

JULY 10, 1897.

The Masonic temple just completed is an honor to the town.

MORLEY avenue will be a fine little thoroughfare when completed.

The Democrats of Pima county are united and will win out next fall.

NOGALES is improving more in proportion to its size than any other town in Arizona.

OHIO and Iowa have spoken on silver, and spoken in an unmistakable voice. Silver is all right.

A. J. GRISWOLD, has partially cleaned up the town council chamber and now has the place in neat shape.

NEVER before was there so much activity in mining in this county. It is a hopeful sign and will add immensely to the prosperity of the city and the county.

Get together and organize a Nogales board of trade. The town is growing and a board of trade composed of our business men could do the place a lot of good.

The consular at Nogales is still undecided. We hope the Republicans will send some one here who will be more of a credit to the United States than most former consuls to this port have been.

The switch engine in the Nogales yards "pops" off enough steam to pay the wages of a good fireman. In some railroad yards the one responsible for this would get his walking papers.

W. C. GREENE made no mistake in selecting his lawyers. Judge W. H. Barnes of Tucson, and W. P. Harlow, the well known criminal lawyer of Sacramento, California, have charge of his case. English and Herring won't be in it with these two legal lights.

PHILIP LASHLY the negro soldier, who murdered a fellow soldier at Fort Huachuca about a year ago was hung at Tucson yesterday evening at 3 o'clock in the jail yard. He died game and made a 40-minute talk. Sheriff Leatherwood and Deputy Marshal J. P. Welles conducted the affair. Death was instantaneous.

The employes of the Santa Fe Pacific company have been struck by the McKinley fresty wave. All the shop men have suffered "a sweeping reduction," and the decrease extends all along the line, from Albuquerque to Mejeave and Los Angeles. The fourth month of the reign of the Hanna-Kohlsaat syndicate does not bring joy to the hearts of the workmen.

THE VIDETTE hopes W. C. Greene will be speedily acquitted of the charge of killing J. C. Burnett, for he killed a man who had murdered his innocent child and her playmate and had threatened to kill him. Mr. Greene was justified in the act or he never would have committed it for he is well known as a peaceable and law-abiding citizen who has the respect of all the best people of southern Arizona, while the man he killed was one whom people generally disliked and his associate were gamblers and saloon loafers. No jury, after hearing the evidence, will decide Mr. Greene is guilty.

THE republicans of the District of Columbia who contributed money and time to elect McKinley are inclined to say cuss words every time they glance over the list of seven juicy diplomatic places which have been given to residents of the district. With the exception of John Hay, who is more of a literary man than a politician and more of a club and society man than of either, and Louis A. Dent, who was the late Mr. Blaine's private secretary for a long time, the average republican had never heard of these favored individuals until their names went to the senate. It is probable that the other five gentlemen are credited to the District of Columbia for a convenience of their congressional backers, but that doesn't make it please the local pie hunters any better.

It is nice to be a Democrat during these days of office seeking and charge filing.

THE man who thinks he has a "lead pipe cinch" on the Nogales consularship will find that there is such a thing as cinching tight enough to break the cinch.

IT looks like George Christ would be surveyor general of Arizona. Some of the Republicans are kicking against him, but he is head and shoulders above the fellows who are doing the kicking.

IS OUT ON BONDS.

W. C. Greene Bailed Out by His Friends.

After Being Refused Bail by Justice Duncan

His Attorneys, W. P. Harlow and W. H. Barnes, Get Him Released by Commissioner Johnson

In the case of the Territory vs. W. C. Greene, charged with killing J. C. Burnett, at Tombstone last week, Justice Duncan held Mr. Greene to answer with bail but his attorneys W. H. Barnes and W. P. Harlow soon had out a writ of habeas corpus and had him released on $30,000 bonds. Within ten minutes after the bond was set it was signed by E. J. Roberts in the sum of $30,000: Hon. B. A. Packard, $15,000, and Sam Barrow, 15,000. Had the bond been half a million it would have been furnished as quickly.

Public sympathy is with Mr. Greene in this case. He did just what any other man would have done under similar circumstances. Nothing was done by him in the matter until he had found out positively that Burnett had blown up the dam and drowned his little girl and her playmate. No one could blame Mr. Greene for killing a man who would do such an act. Even if Burnett did not know the children were playing in the creek below, he should have known that the sudden rush of water was liable to catch some one anyway.

In another way was Mr. Greene justified in taking no chances with the man who had drowned his daughter. Burnett had repeatedly threatened to kill Greene and at the time of the killing was sitting within reach of his Winchester and surrounded by his friends. Burnett was known to be a bad man and of a quarrelsome and abusive disposition, while Mr. Greene is a quiet and peaceable citizen, the best part of whose life has been given to the up-building of Southern Arizona. Burnett had in time killed a number of men and gloried in his record.

Mr. Greene has helped to make it possible for white men to live in this country and has devoted the last twenty-five years to fighting Indians and building himself and family a home.

District Attorney A. R. English and Col. Wm. Herring are for the prosecution.

The district attorney and Justice of the Peace Duncan, both worked hard against Mr. Greene and it was a foregone conclusion before the hearing ended that Duncan would refuse the defendant bail. In his argument, Attorney Harlow roasted both the justice and the district attorney for their undue efforts to hold without bail.

The case will not come up till next October when the grand jury meets.

Two San Francisco grocers—Ring Bros. and T. Salomon—won $100.00 each because they sent the most yellow tickets before June 15th.

But grocers and clerks can get more tickets than other consumers; so we also paid $100.00 each to the two persons named below:

Mrs. Wm. Funk, Winnemucca, Nevada, 132 tickets.
Mrs. L. During, 819 Bryant Street, San Francisco, 72 tickets.

Mrs. During got a number of friends in San Francisco and near by (one keeps a boarding house) to give her their tickets; and she used the tea herself.

By the way, she uses Schilling's Best baking powder and extracts—too bad she doesn't know how good Schilling's Best spices are! But she says the extracts and baking powder are wonderful.

A woman in Stockton, who keeps a restaurant, came very near getting a prize. She deserves one for supplying her customers such good tea.

Better read our advertisements every day—some contain suggestions how to win the prize.

By the way, grocers can't compete for the two $150.00 prizes offered for the most yellow tickets in one envelope between June 15th and August 31st. They can, however, compete for the $1000.00 prize.
